

Rev. Drew Marshall

Personal Information

July 2014

Education: Earned a B.S. in Management from Florida Atlantic University in 1983, concurrently satisfying the degree requirements for a B.S. in Marketing as well. Studied the equivalent of two years additional coursework in psychology, sociology, and education while serving the Jack Eckerd Foundation 1985-1987. Received a Master of Divinity from Columbia Theological Seminary in May 2009.

Professional: Before entering full-time ministry, spent 30 years in management & supervision through a wide variety of small businesses and self-employment, including the fields of horticulture, construction, non-profit social services, marketing, foodservice, retail, and specialty services.

Ecclesiastical: Was an active elder for over 25 years in Presbyterian churches ranging in size from under 100 to over 1,000 members before entering seminary at age 45, and served on numerous committees in Central Florida and St. Augustine Presbyteries. Served as Designated Pastor for 4 years at Murray Hill PC in Jacksonville and 1 year as Interim Pastor at Grace PC in Gainesville.

Personal: Born in Chicago in 1961, but has been a Floridian since High School and lived throughout much of the state. Married to Suzi, with 3 children: Lisa, 30 yrs; Vicki, 27 yrs; and A. Stewart II, 19 yrs. Lisa & Vicki are both married to men named Matt, and blessed us with grandsons 21 days apart (Shane & Tanner) in early 2013.