* Opening Hymn #487 verses 1,3,4

When Morning Gilds the Skies

Unison Prayer of Confession

In the waters of baptism, O God, you have cleansed us and claimed us: forgive us for repeatedly resisting your grace and denying your name, following our own paths which have led us from you. Help us to live into our baptisms, to trust that all we need is in you; remind us that you have marked us as your own, loving us without limit. Wash us with your love again, so that with clean hearts we may follow the way of Jesus our Lord more faithfully each day.

(Continue in silent confession)

Words of Assurance

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

Responding to the Word

Affirmation of Faith from the Confession of 1967

In Jesus Christ God was reconciling the world to himself. He is present in the church by the power of the Holy Spirit to continue and complete his mission. This work of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is the foundation of all confessional statements about God, humanity, and the world. Therefore the church calls people everywhere to be reconciled to God and to one another. We believe we are called to participate in Christ's Church and that we each have been blessed with certain gifts to use for the Glory of God's kingdom. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we shall endeavor to use our gifts to serve Christ's Church in faithful ways. Amen.
